

SPRING BREAK

2016

Activities And Events

Ronald McDonald

Tues., Mar. 15 1:30 pm.

Ronald McDonald and his friend "Stogie" share their excitement for reading and introduce their other good friends - books! This show reinforces appropriate library use and proper care of books. Ultimately, Ronald McDonald delivers a powerful message to children -- reading is fun and book time is an important part of the day.

Seussology 101

Wednesday, March 16 at 1:30pm

The Lakewood Library Friends presents this popular show performed by the sister of the Cat in the Hat: Sister Cat. Enjoy a 45 minute show performed primarily in rhyme which promotes reading. Also expect some magic, music, puppets, audience participation, and all around fun!

Maricela & Friends

Thursday, March 17 at 1:30 pm

The Lakewood Library Friends presents local talent Maricela Carelock with her electric guitar and puppet friends for a bilingual musical event.

Squad Car Show & Tell

Friday, March 18 at 1:30 pm

Dallas Police Officers will be onsite with their squad cars to invite children to explore the inside of their vehicles. Don't miss this opportunity to operate the lights, sirens, and loud speaker of a real police squad car!

Spring Crafts

Saturday, March 19 at 2:00 pm

Celebrate the arrival of spring and St. Patrick's Day by planting shamrocks in leprechaun themed pots and creating even more hands on crafts to take home.

All programs suggested for ages 5 through 12.
